

Check-out Dives

Congratulations! You've started your way to becoming a certified Scuba Diver, and your Adventures in the underwater world are just beginning.

Now is the time to be thinking about your next steps, completing your open water check out dives. These are 4 dives which take place over 2 days.

We have lots of options for you to choose from, (please see our attached schedule), you may wish to complete the 4 required dives locally, or kick it up a notch and go away on a weekend certification trip, or even a tropical holiday.

Our local options include midweek evenings, or weekends, simply select the best option for you and reserve ahead.

Please note there is a maximum of 8 students per check out session, so please reserve ahead of time, (no later than your 4th module) to avoid disappointment.

Schedule changes: We understand that sometimes a change in schedule may be necessary, and 24 hours notice would be appreciated, if you are unable to attend a scheduled dive. Less than 24 hours notice or missing a class will lead to a $20 instructor fee charged to your account.

Pricing options:

Local Group Dives: Join a group and have more fun.

$200.00 includes Instructor fee, Equipment and Certification Card*

Private Classes: Need extra time flexibility?

$300.00 includes Instructor fee, Equipment and Certification Card*

What's not included: Transportation to the dive site, and park fees if applicable. Please bring your own swim suit, towel and log book.*

Bold Alternatives:

Join one of our exciting getaway trips, and complete your certification at a diving destination:

- The 1000 Islands on the St. Lawrence River, Alexandria Bay, NY boasts warm water, and historic shipwrecks. Take a weekend adventure trip.

- Tobermory, Canada's finest underwater diving park, with pristine clear water, shipwrecks and amazing geological formations make this site a place divers return to year after year. A weekend you'll remember forever.
- Pamper yourself with a catamaran sailing adventure. The Florida Keys are just a short hop away from the chills of winter. Relax aboard our 4 star accommodations. A little diving in the warm tropical water, some shore excursions, fine dining and plenty of time to relax and enjoy. Trips starting from 3 days to 7 days.

Travelling this winter? Consider completing your certification dives at a sunny destination. We can provide all the necessary referral documentation free of charge, so that you can finish your course with a PADI resort center at your vacation destination.

Equipment:

While a student with Niagara Scuba Center we are happy to provide you with modern, top notch dive gear during your course.

However, many of our students find that having your own personal mask, snorkel and fins makes all the difference in comfort and familiarity.

We have a number of popular and affordably priced gear packages, which offer substantial savings over purchasing items separately. (see the enclosed price list).

After Certification: Continuing your Adventure.

You're not far from becoming a PADI open water Diver. Soon you'll be a certified diver, inside the threshold of diving and looking at all the adventure diving offers.

Plan to go diving! We'll be happy to help you find people to dive with, make dives happen, even offer suggestions on where to go diving.

Niagara Scuba Center, the diving specialists, will be happy to help you keep diving, and find different and fun ways to enjoy your diving.

Meet people, Go Places and Do things.
